1.4.70

a Lesson in the University of The New Covenant

Theodore Cottingham, February 8, 2006 8:31am in van

www.unc.bz

1. Who can know what I am about to do with a man surrendered to My words, My words, My word; My words which I speak in the dark not, but I speak in the wee hours of great light to a man/one who will receive light and light be, light flow through;

2. And who will know what I do with a man who flows light? Yea watch Me.

3. If I be lifted up I will do what? I will draw who/where, yea to themselves, no, but to Me and My me will give Me praise not only, but yea pointing all to My Father, his Father, our Father; there is but one Father real.

4. I love you and I give you Me; and watch now for My appearing in the blessed, the beloved; those who want Me and are not afraid of My words.